

Rendells Auctioneers held their SUPER SATURDAY! Poultry, Horse Tack, Pet Food & Sundries Auction on Saturday 7th August 2021

Rendells report on their first of three Super Saturday sales that included poultry, horse tack, petfood & sundries held on Saturday the 7th August 2021 at Newton Abbot Market.

Poultry

The poultry section saw a bigger number of entries, more than anticipated selling to a mixed trade where quality sold well! Top price was a cage of 3 Light Sussex pullets that sold to £13 each for Mr P Cole of Crediton, 3 Rhode Island Red Hens from Mr S Wootton of Ilesington sold to £12 each twice. Ducks topped with a Trio of Cal Ducking's being 1 week old selling to £11 each from Mrs J Robinson of Kingsteignton while a pair of Mallard Call Ducks sold to £11 each for M Willcocks of Ivybridge. Chicks sold to a top price of £22 for a cage of 1 week old guinea fowl chicks from Mr W Warren of South Brent.

Eggs

Eggs met a good trade with 4 silver laced Wyandotte Bantam eggs selling to £5 for Mr T Davies and 6 cream crested Legbar eggs selling to £6 from the same vendor.

Sundries

Sundries a sold to a top of £44 for poultry crate, chicken hutches to £30 and a duck house to £25, poultry netting to £25, drainage pipe to £16 and many other items £10 to 15.

Horse Tack

A good entry of Horse Tack and equestrian items in excess of 450 various lots sold to a top price of £210 for a barefoot 'Cheynne' full sized saddle from Mrs C Gibson of Plymouth, while other English Anthill Saddles sold to £40 a Thorowgood Saddle with irons and leathers to £40, new leather riding boots reached £32 and £30 and many other items were around the £20 to £30 mark with smaller items; headcollars and lead ropes always meeting good demand.

Pet Food

Pet Food entries topped out at just over 250 lots ranging from treats to full bags of premium dry food. New items that caught the eye of prospective purchasers were the resin figurines, ranging from a shire horse and cart, British bulldog, a family of sheep and a Donkey that topped the market at £47 and two wall mounted horse heads that sold to a price of £40 each. Buyers fought it out to purchase lots of Drontal Wormer selling to £22 and £21 many times. Bags of Eukanuba dog food to £14, Royal Canin to £14, Hills Cat food to £13, Skinners & Purina dog food sold to £12, Chudleys dog food to £10, Kat Litter to £10, while for the birds, bags of peanuts sold to £13, sunflower hearts to £9 and Robin Mix to £7 all meeting keen demand.

Once again, we thank both buyers and vendors for supporting this Super Saturday Sale at Newton Abbot and look forward to seeing everyone on Saturday the 21st of August and then again on Saturday 4th September for the next Super Saturday to include, poultry, horse tack, sundries and pet food.
